Two Million Dollars Lie Unclaimed—Do Any Belong to You?

They were late for the party — but what a story they had to tell!

NOBODY will blame you for being late if, on the way to a party some night, you stop in, like our friends below, for a glimpse of the new Pontiac Six. The evening male members of this particular sightseeing were just out of camera range to the south-south-west, listening about fifteen-minutes and silent second, when our intrepid photographer caught the group in a Pontiac dealer's showroom. Finally, you can hardly hold it against them for delaying the party long enough to pass approval on Pontiac's new streamlined Fisher bodies, sleek new front end and steering system. By the way, is one you're wondering what's caught the eye of the charming lady third from the right, she's admiring the new Ride Control and Free Wheeling features on the dash.

"OH, JACK!
*..the dentist gives me
the most TERRIBLE news"*

FOR many of us, the prospect of having one's teeth checked seems like a small matter while in its proper place, but when it comes out the gap is enormous, and seemingly the eyes of the world are upon that place. At times the dentist will appear the damage so fully, but first there will be fifty days of self-consciousness and dread. Tying no talk or one's husband closed lips... she had held before the fact... hoping not to meet people.

The dentist would rather please

Yes, dental surgeons have grown very skillful, but the modern expert takes more pride in prevention than he does in repair. Make a professional confidant of your dentist, both with respect to your own teeth and those of your children.

Naturally today believes that simple polishing is all that is needed to keep teeth in health, but the modern expert takes more pride in prevention than he does in repair. Make a professional confidant of your dentist, both with respect to your own teeth and those of your children.

Our great danger in pyorrhea is the fact that people often think they understand it when they really do not. It would be no wonder that it may undertake the game for several years before making its presence known. That is why, among people over forty, we have the astounding proportion of 80% pyorrhea sufferers (four out of five).

Probably the best-known name in the entire country in connection with pyorrhea is the name of Dr. R. J. Forhan. Thousands of doctors from coast to coast, and all over the world, are using Forhan's Pyorrhea Asesor, an ethical preparation solely for the use of the dental profession. The dentist themselves take pyorrhea very seriously and it will pay every man and woman to take it seriously, too.

A lifetime devoted to pyorrhea

Dr. Forhan worked for 15 years in this field and the fruit of his experience is available in the products that bear his name. Don't wait for bleeding gums or similar signs of trouble. Take up the use of Forhan's Toothpaste in your home both night and morning. Brush your teeth and massage your gums according to directions. And please remember that this Forhan principle is a "plan," an extra, an added safeguard for the protection of your teeth and gums.

Take the care of teeth seriously

The important point to get ahead of pyorrhea. Don't give it a chance to creep down silently from the gum line. Forhan's will not do the work by itself. You yourself must take the matter seriously, in your own case and for the children. And guess who lives in either case, Forhan is the better man. Forhan's money can buy—pleasant, agreeable, long-lasting. Start with Forhan's today—Forhan's, the double-duty toothpaste in the big brown tube. Forhan's, Ltd., St. Thomas, P. Q.

The Story of Silk Stockings

In the days of yore—or is it not the day—
Did stockings wear as we do now,
And were they supposed to be worn?
They proved the basis of the war.
But give us three days, we have had better days
To show the fashion of the day.
But give us three days, or all over of the year,
We shall be developing today.

THIS first mention we have in history of stockings appears in the annals of France, in the seventh century. The stockings were made of heavy cloth or leather and were worn by men only. An Englishman William Lisle invented the first knitting machine, a Lisle which he presented to Queen Elizabeth who was not only delighted with the present.

The courtiers of all wanted silk stockings, then and wore them with great effect as the court ladies were obliged to show off their legs. Later in the last century in Scotland, the Queen's favorite, Edward the first of the court having silk stockings and he wore them with great effect. At all events, we know that silk stockings were first worn at the court of Queen Elizabeth.

Up to the beginning of the present century even the most fashionable women could afford only one or two pairs of silk stockings. But with the advent of longer lasting machines, spider methods, cheaper transportation and the many other factors that modern times have introduced, silk stockings became less expensive and were placed with in the rank of the most modest goods. The long legs of the court ladies established the need of long stockings which has become regarded as a necessity and not a luxury.

It is interesting to know that it requires the product of about two thousand silkworms to make a dozen pairs of silk stockings. It is also interesting to know that twenty-five people are necessary in the making of one pair of silk stockings.

It is amusing to think that silk stockings are fragile. In reality silk is the strongest fabric in the world. It is stronger in proportion than the finest steel. But, it is all things in all things about the soft and warm feel of silk. Some of the silk stockings include: Working in saltwater water after each washing, do not rub soap on them, the soaked ones taken or hand. Roll your stockings down to the heel before putting on, do not "drag" it over the whole length of your leg.

And a good hint, when buying silk stockings is to buy two pairs of the same color. It is obvious that two are better than one. "You" might think that is a bit silly, but having two pairs of a color you really have the benefit of these pairs.

Miss Jessie Marie De Both makes her delicious

MAHOGANY LAYER CAKE

with Magic Baking Powder

"I find Magic always uniform, always dependable," says famous director of cooking schools—

MAY a husband would like to extend thanks to Miss Jessie Marie De Both. For, every year, the housewife of Canada knows the famous De Both Housewives' Cooking School a wealth of valuable cooking hints and delicious new recipes.

"When a young housewife asks me what baking powder she should use," says Miss De Both, "this is my advice: Use the best—only that is pure, uniform and invariably dependable."

"You can't use mixed-rate baking powder and expect first-class results. After all, the use of the baking powder is selling compared with the use of the other materials in your cake. And a baking powder before means better value of your fresh butter and eggs, your fine flour, sugar and leavening."

"My experience with Magic Baking Powder has been personally happy. I find that it never varies—that it is consistently reliable. And I know it is pure, and free from harmful ingredients."

Statements by such well-known cookery authorities give wholehearted support to Miss De Both's judgment. In fact, the majority of domestic and industrial cooking schools and public institutions throughout Canada use and recommend Magic exclusively.

And 3 out of 4 Canadian housewives who take at home say they always use Magic "because it gives consistently better results." If you've never used Magic, try it today. Find out for yourself how dependable it is... how it improves even the best recipe!

A COACH FOR CINDERELLA

Turn the great book of Time to the page of our days and you will find as a major entry—"The Emancipation of Women." Freed after untold centuries from the narrow restrictions of a purely domestic life, she has emerged, like a radiant Cinderella, into a broader, freer, more heartening existence.

Entering this larger sphere her influence has acquired a greater scope. Commerce, science, arts . . . indeed every occupation . . . feel the effect of her presence.

Industry is no exception. Content, as a rule, to leave its operation to men, she nevertheless contends it to a great degree . . . because, to a great degree, she is its market.

Fisher was quick to realize what part "The New Woman" was destined to play in the future of its business. The automobile was still in its beginning when she became an important factor in the purchase of the family car. Then came the invention of the self-starter, and it was immediately evident that women would become more and more the actual drivers.

And so, for years Fisher Bodies have been built with feminine tastes in mind. Even the first single elements of comfort which Fisher brought to automobile bodies were especially meant to be pleasing to women.

It is fairly safe to assume that not rarely so much thought and effort would have gone into such considerations as seat cushioning, noise prevention, ventilation and temperature insulation . . . but for the realization that these matters are important to women.

Certainly body-styling, the uses of color, the attention given to upholstery, interior trim, fittings, and equipment conveniences have had the demands of feminine consciousness as their standard.

Fisher is particularly proud of what it has achieved, and equally proud to acknowledge its inspiration.
